

STUDENT WORK - HARSH TAK

Department of Interior Design | Students Portfolio

Interior Design creates comfortable and inspiring spatial environment. It develops the sense of association between the user and the space that redefines the satisfaction of the end user. Manipal University, Jaipur has adopted the Choice based credit system which allows the flexibility in education system, so that students depending upon their interests and aims can choose interdisciplinary, intra-disciplinary and skill-based courses.

B.Des. in Interior Design is a 4-year course that is designed to teach students the concepts that go into planning, designing, organizing, and managing spaces, based on their function. Interior design programs take students through a detailed study about the various principles and elements of design, of which, training in 2D and 3D design software is an integral part.

DEPARTMENT

The program aims to prepare professionals to work as Interior Designers, Graphic Designers, Space Consultants for Exhibitions, Theatres and Museums, Specialist for Visual Merchandising, Freelance Designer, Furniture Designer, Lighting Designer to name a few. Interior Designers may also be employed by architects, builders, private consultancies & various MNCs etc.

Ar. Sneh Singh,
HoD, Department of Interior Design

Ar. Sneh Singh is an Associate Professor & Head of the department of Interior design with 12 years Academic and Industrial experience. She has done her B.Arch. from Government College of Architecture, Lucknow and Master's from IIT Kanpur in Industrial Design. Before joining to MUJ, she has worked on International Design and construction projects such as Signage & Wayfinding design of Khalifa Stadium (for FIFA world cup 2022). She is also a LEED Accredited Professional (U S Green Building Council) and has good experience of handling Indian and International LEED rated construction projects. She is associated with MUJ from 2014.

Wang Qian and Yi Ye, architects and Interior Designers from China visited Manipal University Jaipur, and gave a talk around their portfolios focusing on "Heritage Preservation," followed by an interactive session with the students

A Preferred Choice of the Industry

Industry collaborations at MUJ are dedicated to academic and professional synergization and research association with more than 34 Frontline Industries/Multinational Organizations. The university endeavors to provide opportunities to its students and faculty to stretch their wings towards global networking. MUJ's Interior Design Department has taken initiatives in collaborating with organizations like Hafele and Armstrong, where we are developing our furniture lab with them and industry experts from the organization visit regularly to interact with the students. "Networking with professionals in one's area of study, areas immediately connected with it as well as distantly related to it is becoming increasingly necessary for his/her growth. One must have an attitude of inquiry, mastery, and networking for career growth as well as for personal satisfaction," opines Sneh.

MUJ takes care of all the aspects to provide quality education and training to produce world-class professionals. The Industry-Institute Interaction at MUJ is designed to run longer period for preparing the manpower of world-class
