1. Introduction of the Event

Hindi Dayis celebrated in some parts of India to commemorate the date 14 September 1949 on which a compromise was reached—during the drafting of the Constitution of India—on the languages that were to have official status in the Republic of India. The compromise, usually called the Munshi-Ayyangar formula, after drafting committee members K. M. Munshi and N. Gopaldaswami Ayyangar, was voted by the Constituent Assembly of India after three years of debate between two opposing camps. The Hindi protagonists wanted Hindi to be the sole "national language" of India; the delegates from South India preferred English to have a place in the Constitution. Smriti Pareek a student of BA(J&MC) has initiated to conduct a special talk on Hindi Diwas.

2. Objective of the Event

The objective of the event was to make aware students, about the great Hindi authors and discuss their contribution in Hindi Literature.
