5. Brief Description of the event

MANIPAL UNIVERSITY JAIPUR

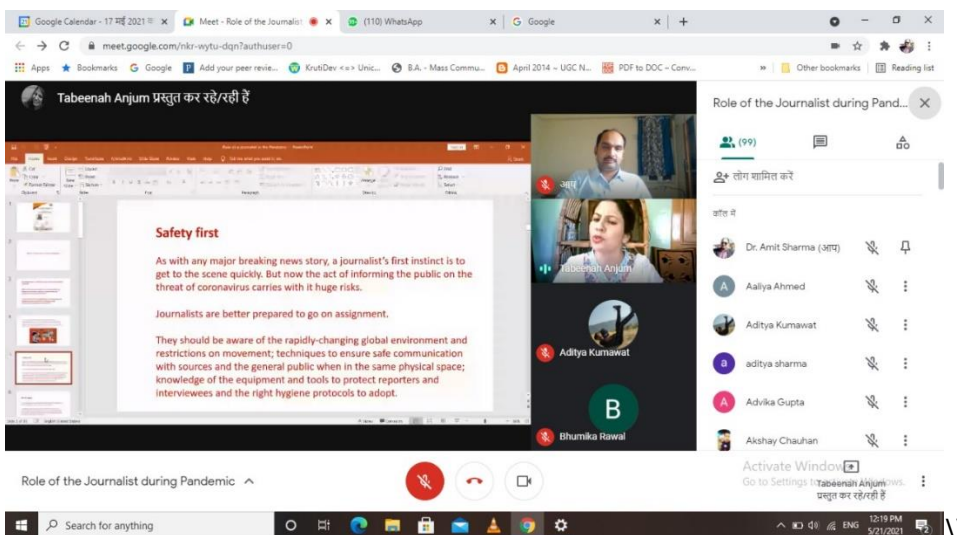

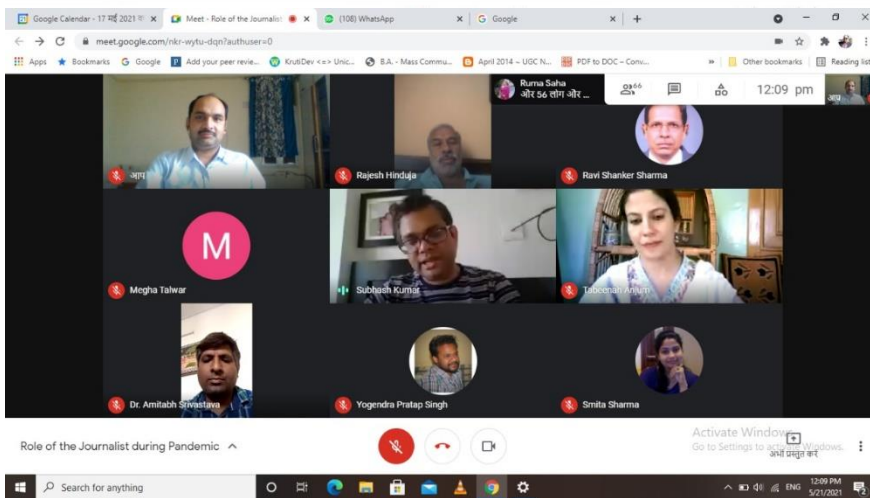

In this pandemic, do the stories that can inspire others in the society, said Dr. Tabeenah Anjum, senior journalist and associated with Outlook Magazine. Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Manipal University conducted an online interactive session on the topic 'Role of Journalist during Pandemic' on 21th May 2021. More than 100 participants all over the country took part in this event.

She added that as a journalist; try to connect your people, your audience, and listeners. Social media can be a good platform with which you can connect with your people. Anyone can spread information quickly via a social media platform. So, as a communicator, you can use social media for quick communication. She said that there are three basic roles of journalist, s/he is reporter, communicator, and influencer.

Dr. Anjum said that the job of a reporter is to hunt the stories, do ground report and question the establishment. She suggested the budding journalists, focus on rural area, and check flows. Try to find out human interest stories and don't forget to follow up your stories. Being a journalist, you must spread fact full information and truth among the readers, so wait till the official announcement and always take a quote of the person concern.

Dr. Subhash Kumar, HOD, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication welcomed the speaker and Prof. Amitabh Srivastava, Director, School of Media, and Communication gave the vote of thanks. Dr. Amit Sharma and Dr. Avneesh Kumar were the event coordinator. Budding Journalist Megha Talwar moderated the session.
