5. Brief Description of the event

Jaipur: Content is the king. If your news content is good and impressive, you can create many stories from this content. Content is dying nowadays, and you (Budding Journalists) can create quality content, said Vimal Mohan, Sports Editor, NDTV India. He interacted with the students, Journalists, and faculty members on 29th May 2021. Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Manipal University Jaipur organized an online interactive session on “Sports Journalism: Challenges & Opportunities”.

He said that as a budding journalist, you must be aware of how to ask questions. How to ask questions against the establishment? Your questions should be well connected with the public. He added that every story has multi-faces and try to explore other faces of the story. You must understand the content and become perfect in language. Practising journalism is like moving on a razor blade edge. Try to present both faces of the story and don't make your own opinion. If you want to become a good journalist, try to read as much as possible.

Dr. Subhash Kumar, HOD, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication welcomed the speaker and Prof. Amitabh Srivastava, Director, School of Media, and Communication has given a vote of thanks. Dr. Amit Sharma, and Dr. Avneesh Kumar were the event coordinators of the event. BA(JM&C) student Riya moderated the session. All faculty members of the department were also present during the session.
