1. Introduction of the Event: -

Department of Languages in association with the Directorate of Alumni Relations conducted a series of lectures by the alumni of the Department of Languages. It was an online activity involving the students of Department of Languages.

2. Objectives of the Event: -

- To provide an interactive platform for interaction of the current students with their departmental alumni.
- Providing students an exposure about college, clubs, and activities through the eyes of the Alumni.

3. Beneficiaries of the Event: -

The event was conducted for all students of BA (H) English, MA (English) from the Department of Languages, School of Humanities & Social Sciences.

4. Brief Description of the event: -

Ms. Vedanshi Sethi BA (Hons) English 2016-2019 spoke on the topic “Delineation and Juxtaposition of Reluctant Wills in Sashi Deshpande’s The Intrusion”. The session focused mainly on her research interests as well as the importance of research for the students of English Honors. She also replied to the curiosities and questions of the current students about publication and dissertation writing.
