MANIPAL UNIVERSITY JAIPUR

Introduction of the Event:

Lecture was organized by the Department of arts. The topic taken was religion for peace the lecture was taken by Srivatsa Goswami an Indian Indologist Acharya of Radha Raman Temple and Director of Sri Chaitanya Prem Sansthan, Vrindavan

Objective of the Event

To create awareness for peace among the students and faculty members of the university

Beneficiaries of the Event

Faculty members and Students of the Manipal University Jaipur.

Details of the Guests

Shrivatsa Goswamiji is an Indian indologist as well as a scholar. He was born at Vrindavan into a brahmin family whose members were the caretakers of the famous Radha Raman temple for more than four centuries. Shrivatsa Goswami's father, Purushottam Goswami, was the temple leading priest. In accordance with the family tradition, Shrivatsa Goswami became the acharya of the Radha Raman temple. In 1972, he founded a scientific and cultural organization, the "Sri Caitanya Prema Samsthana", to the propagation of traditional Vaishnavism, patronised the arts and scholarship on Vaishnavism, especially in Vrindavan.

Brief Description of the event

In his address He said that the effort, which is worshipped by mankind, that 'Dukh Hari-Sukh Kari' is a value and a process For this, he uses the word, Shri Krishna. 'Dukh Hari-Sukh Kari', if a person is found or a value and a process are found, then man considers the reward of his life to be successful. This is the goal of mankind. For this, he says that he can be Krishna. This is the speciality of the Sanskrit language. Mostly with the word Krishna we remember the Lord, Mohan playing the flute But in Sanskrit the Dhatu used to make each word is different. "Krish: Bhoo
