1. Introduction of the Event

The young entrepreneur's meet was organized on the theme "The Golden Era of Indian Economy: Opportunities and Challenges Ahead". In the session, the resource person talked about the shift in the Indian Economy. This is a time of immense potential and promise to recognize the opportunities and challenges that lie ahead. By addressing the challenges and seizing opportunities, India can truly make this period a "Golden Era" of prosperity, development, and well-being for all its citizens.

2. Objectives of the Event

- To acquaint Faculty Members, Research Scholars, and Students at the Faculty of Arts with the present state of the Indian Economy at the global level.
- To appraise and orient Faculty Members, Research Scholars, and Students at the Faculty of Arts about the Future Trends in the Indian Economy.

3. Beneficiaries of the Event

- Faculty Members, Research Scholars, and Students at the Faculty of Arts

4. Brief Description of the event

The session started with a warm welcome extended to the Guest Sh. Vishwanath Bhat, Dean FoA Prof. Dr. Komal Audichya, Directors, HoDs, Faculty Members, Research Scholars, and students by Dr. Jaivardhan Singh Rathore, who was the MC of the Event. Dr. Rathore introduced the Event by emphasizing the initiatives undertaken by Research Cell, FoA to promote and strengthen Research Activities at FoA. This was followed by the Lamp Lighting Ceremony by the Dignitaries along with the Felicitation of the Guest by the Dean, FoA. Then the session began with the Expert Lecture by the Guest Prof. Vishwanath Bhat who talked to the audience about the important themes of "Atma Nirbhar Bharat" and the promising future that India holds as an Economy. Prof. Bhat talked about the current scenarios of start-ups, entrepreneurship, India as a Global Power, the Make in India Mission, and its special relevance during the Covid Times. He talked about the Four "F Crises" ranging from Food, Fuel, Fertilizers, and Finance. He also talked about the future trends in terms of the transitions that included digital transformation, green economy, demographic transition, energy transition, supply chain transition, etc. He emphasized that India is a young country and thus there are immense opportunities for India to be a Great Start-Up Capital in the world. He mentioned that India is the Talent Factory of the world. The session was highly interactive as there were questions from the Faculty Members and Research scholars in the audience. A vote of thanks was proposed to the Guest and other concerned persons by Prof. Dr. Geetika Tankha, Chairperson, Research Cell, FoA. Prof. Vishwanath Bhat was highly impressed by the enthusiasm and active participation of the audience. The event was conducted by the Research Cell, FoA under the Guidance of the Dean, FoA, Prof. Dr. Komal Audichya along with Prof. Geetika Tankha, Dr. V. Vineeth Kumar, Dr. Shilpi
