He conceptualised the idea of "BlessedArch" when we were in our 3rd semester and now, has grown tremendously in that world. His journey has been beautiful, and we were glad to introduce our colleague with enormous proud to all the B.Arch students.

The talk helped the students to learn interesting facts about his work, along with giving a detailed insight on how he took inspirations from around. In addition to understanding Gaudi's life and contributions, Rishabh spoke about himself too, telling all of us how to expand our horizons in this field.
