

Study Trip to Delhi

Fashion Design Department

SD&A, FOD, MUJ

Study trip was organized by Fashion Design Department from 15th to 17th March 2023 where students were taken to Surajkund Mela, Fashion Export Houses and local market for fabric survey.

On the very first day, Students were taken to Surajkund Mela which every year showcases the richness and diversity of the handicrafts, handlooms and cultural fabric of India. They explored different artisans of different cultures and locale. On second day, they got a chance to visit the High-end fashion and knitwear industry, where they explored a variety of fabrics and materials. It was a growing experience to know about how the industry works and what are the different types of textured fabrics and embroideries available in the market. On third day they visited local markets for fabric survey. Shanti Mohalla is one of the best fabric markets located in Delhi. A lot of designers and boutique labels source their fabrics. Students explored variety of fabrics, trims and accessories over there.

