Introduction of the Event

Department of Interior Design organised a knowledge sharing session with India Lost & Found (ILF). The session was conducted by the ILF founder, Mr. Amit Pasricha on an online (Microsoft Teams) platform on 06th September 2022 from 12:00 pm to 1:30 pm for B. Des (Interior design) students. The session was on Historic Urban Landscape.

Objective of the Event

- To make the students understand about the urban landscape related to historic sites.
- To make the students understand about the various aspects/stories while designing an urban space for the people.

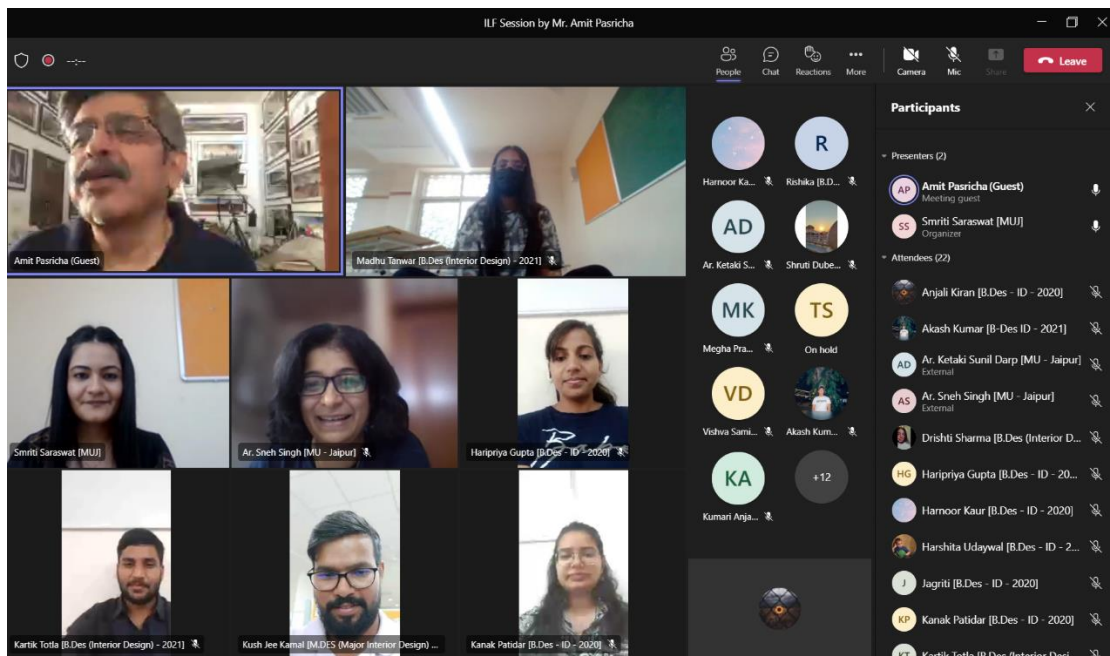

Beneficiaries of the Event

- B. Des (I.D) Students
- Faculties

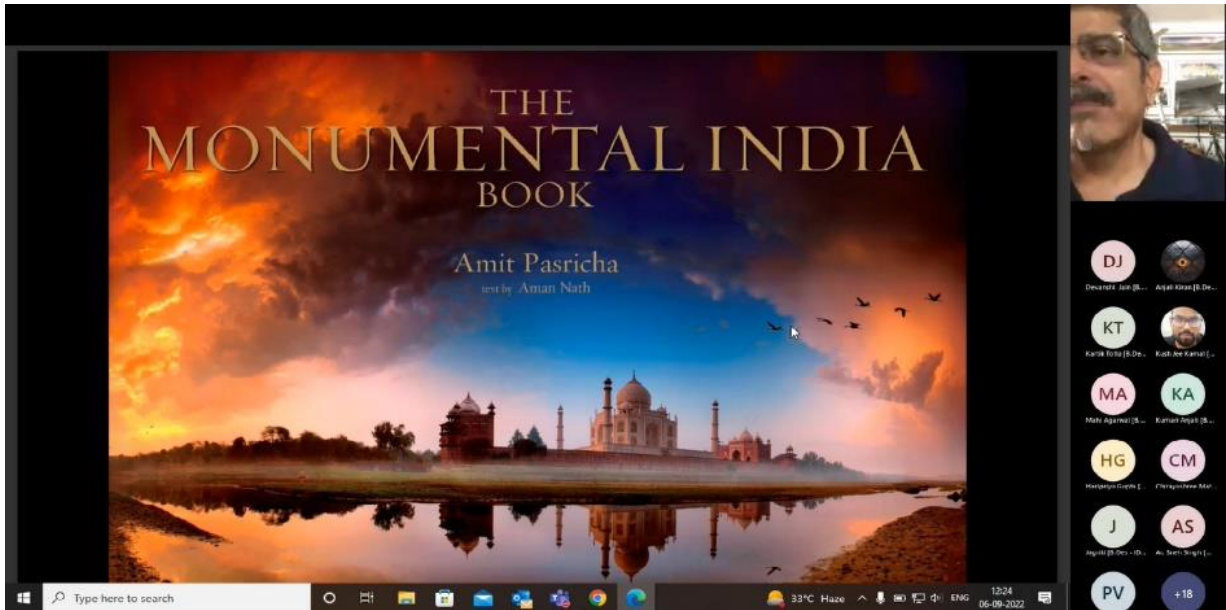

Brief Description of the event

The Industry Expert from India Lost & Found shared his experiences as a panoramic photographer. Discussed & shared glimpses of his published books and believes that photography is the most powerful modern language of today, must be used to draw attention to those aspects that stand neglected. Expert interacted with students and about their experiences of historic urban spaces. He also answered to the queries of the students. The session was concluded with a vote of thanks by Ar. Sneh Singh, HoD Interior Design, and a group picture.

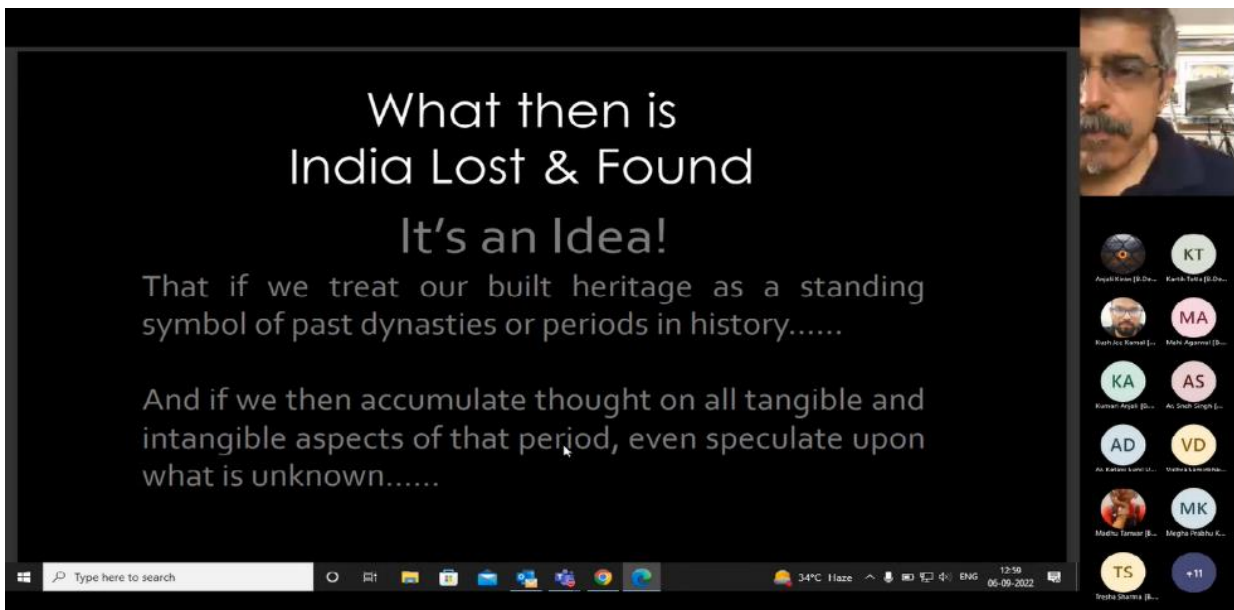

Photographs of the event:
