REPORT

The session was based on the topic “Life Analytics”. This session brought to light the various, small yet unanswered questions that a person faces not just academically but also psychologically. In the session, Vidushi Bajpai, the main speaker enlightened the students with the certain aspects of life that most of the students tend to ignore while moving on their career path. The speaker put forth about her several experiences and the important lesson that she extracted from them. It was a session of approximately an hour where the speaker who was the alumni of the university and a current employee of Think and Learn Pvt Ltd, also told about her journey in the university and her analysis throughout those 3 years.
