1. Introduction of the Event

The expert session was organized by the School of Business & Commerce, Faculty of Management and Commerce. In this session, expert shared his views on the intricacies of sustainability reporting. In the world of reporting of sustainability, there are many issues related to integrated reporting, perspectives and expectations of different stakeholders, varying nature of different businesses, and questioning the suitability of one size fit all approach in terms of reporting, giving ample room for thought.

2. Objective of the Event

The objective of the event was to shed light on the emergence of ESG accounting. He made a presentation on Rushing Headlong into Creating an Integrated ESG Reporting System: Is It Harmless or Harmful to Society?

3. Beneficiaries of the Event

Faculty members.

4. Details of the Guests

Prof. Anup Shrivastava

5. Brief Description of the event

India has emerged as a conscious aspirant and has shown promise and capability to take great initiative in paving the way in combating climate change and meeting the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations in many of its regulatory schemes internally such as the introduction of the Business Responsibility and Sustainability Reporting (BRSR) by SEBI in 2021 and the sustainability reporting format is based on the nine principles of National Guidelines for Responsible Business Conduct (NGRBC) introduced by SEBI.

6. Screenshots of the event

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting interface. The main content is a presentation slide with the following text:

Rushing Headlong into Creating an Integrated ESG Reporting System: Is It Harmless or Harmful to Society?

Anup Srivastava
Haskayne School of Business
University of Calgary

Below the slide, there are five questions listed:

1. Who are the stakeholders and what are their needs?
2. Would the same information system suffice for all types of organizations?
3. What is accountants' expertise in ESG matters?
4. How can gaming and greenwashing be prevented?
5. Would integrated ESG reports provide a new justification for the under-performance of fund managers?

Below the questions, there is a red text block:

Without good answers to these questions, a hastily created system could adversely affect the efficiency of capital allocation,

- not just be a waste of society's resources

The bottom right of the slide features the University of Calgary logo and the text: UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY HASKAYNE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS.

HOUR

1d. Who are the stakeholders and what are their needs?

- Besides, what is accountants' record in creating summary metric?
- How useful are earnings and book values to just one stakeholder—shareholder?
 - Apple with $3 trillion value has a book value of just $60 billion
 - 40% of companies incur loss but have billions of dollars of valuation
