1. Introduction of the Event

The curriculum-based guest lecture was conducted on ‘Blockchain & Cryptocurrency’. In the world of Fintech, it is very important to understand how Blockchain technology is affecting the traditional finance segment and how cryptocurrency is emerging as a source of payment and investment. Also, the issues related with Blockchain and Cryptocurrencies are discussed.

2. Objective of the Event

The objective of the event is to make students understand the importance and issues related to the application of Blockchain and the use of Cryptocurrencies in the financial services segment.

3. Beneficiaries of the Event

Students of BBA, Open elective, and M. Com of Fintech Course.

4. Details of the Guests

Mr. Gagan Dubey,

5. Brief Description of the event

Technology has disrupted the financial services segment. Where the application of technology has eased the process and provides newer types of services, a few issues are also associated with this. It is important for the students to understand the technology and services and the associated issues so that they are better equipped to face them.
