TSB had the honour of hosting Ms Janhavi. She is an esteemed alumna of the batch of 2018-2020. She is an HR business consultant at PWC

Through the session, she enlightened the students about that she has done many internships whenever she gets a time when she completed her MBA, she was back home without a job she figured out things and did some research. She knew she wants a career in HR take one step at a time sort out your priorities company don't want to train freshers we have a lot of competition in the market keep trying for better things once you start moving then the sky is a limit two main things start doing something. Take one step at a time tips on how can grab the job, ready your detailed resume always change your resume according to the organization show your industrial specific skills keep detailed description about what is special in you link your theoretical things with practical work always keep your profile updated always update your profiles on naukari.com daily at once can be a small change so the recruiter can see your profile on top always maintain your priority list and also update your preferred location on your job profile networking is very important things always listen to your faculties if you get an opportunity to work in the different field give it a try again as much as knowledge as you can research the company before giving interview. Some tips for negotiating salary: you can say like “I am fine according to company standards or company policy” try to appreciate the company you can also do counter questions like what my role will be, what responsibilities I would be given, time hours of working etc.
